Documents issued by an official entity of a recognized tribe are government documents.*

Documents Issued by Colleges and Universities

- Students may also provide proof of residence by presenting any document from a college or university that contains the student's current name and residential address. Acceptable documents may be issued by either public or private educational institutions and include an invoice, transcript, correspondence, or a print-out or screenshot from any college or university source displaying the student's name and residential address (e.g., online student portals for registration, tuition, or housing). Such documents are acceptable whether the student's address is an on-campus or off-campus residence.
  - ◆ If a student presents a document from a private college or university as proof of residence, they must also present an approved photo ID from that institution.
  - ◆ Students attending public educational institutions may present any acceptable photo ID.

In order to be considered "current," the document must be unexpired, if it has an expiration date. If the document does not have an expiration date, the issuance date must be within six months of the date it is presented to the election official.

An end date for a pay period or billing period is not an expiration date. To determine whether such a document is current, refer to its issuance date. In the absence of an issuance date or expiration date, for a document to be considered current, there must be other time-based indicators on the document showing that it is current.
